Siemens USA

Spiegel is the President and CEO of Siemens USA and is responsible for growing the U.S. business in the company's largest market. With over $22 billion in sales including $5.5 billion exports and approximately 50,000 employees in the U.S., Siemens is a global leader in technology and services focusing on the areas of industrial electrification, automation and digitalization. One of the world's largest producers of energy-efficient, highly-engineered technologies, Siemens is a leading supplier of systems and software for power, oil & gas, energy management, mobility, industrial automation, automotive and medical devices. Siemens has over 90 major manufacturing sites across the U.S. and is represented in all 50 states. Mr. Spiegel speaks regularly at a variety of conferences and events across the U.S. and around the globe on topics such as Industry Digitalization (IOT), Education and the Skills Gap, the Future of Energy and Infrastructure. He has appeared on many TV business shows, including CNBC, Fox Business, Bloomberg, CNN, MSNBC among others.

Mr. Spiegel joined Siemens in January 2010 after 25 years of global consulting experience with organizations in the oil and gas, power, chemicals, water, diversified industrials, retail and automotive markets. From 1999-2003, he served as the Managing Director of Booz Allen Hamilton International while living in Tokyo. This role included managing the firm's business in Asia, Latin America and the Middle East. He was an original member of the Board of Directors for Booz & Company and was previously a member of the Board of Directors for Booz Allen Hamilton, Inc. From 2006-2010, Mr. Spiegel served as the Managing Partner of the firm's Global Energy, Chemicals and Power consulting practices and led Booz & Company's Washington D.C. office.

Mr. Spiegel holds an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College where he was an Edward Tuck Scholar and received his A.B. with Honors in Economics from Harvard University. He is the Chairman of Ford's Theatre Society Board in Washington, D.C. and a member of The Board of Overseers at Dartmouth's Tuck School of Business and the Board of Trustees at Rollins College. He is also a Director of Liberty Mutual Holding Company, Inc., and a member of the President's Advanced Manufacturing Partnership Steering Committee. He is also a member of the Board of a variety of associations and non-profits in the Washington DC area.
