China Initiates Antidumping Duty Investigation into Pecans from the United States?and Mexico

On September 25, 2025, China’s Ministry of Commerce self-initiated an antidumping duty (AD) investigation into imports of pecans from the United States and Mexico. If an affirmative decision is issued in this investigation, duties may be imposed on subject U.S. exports. ?

What is an antidumping duty (AD) investigation?

An AD investigation assesses whether foreign goods imported into a country are being sold at less than fair value (below prices or costs) in the domestic market (i.e., being dumped) and whether this is causing or threatening to cause injury to the domestic industry.

How can I participate?

U.S. companies involved in the production, sale, or distribution of the subject goods should register as interested parties as soon as possible. Registration is the first step in protecting your rights in a foreign trade remedy proceeding. Doing so allows you to access the case records and submit information and comments, ensuring that your views are considered. Please follow the directions outlined in sections three, six, and seven of the Initiation Notice for instructions on how to register as an interested party.?
