All Trade Agreements

TANC's Trade and Related Agreements Database (TARA) includes more than 200 active, binding agreements between the United States and its trading partners covering manufactured products and services. It is designed to provide the public with information on agreements currently in force and does not include agriculture agreements. For information on agricultural trade issues, please contact the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Currently, TANC makes the texts for the following types of agreements available online:

- Free Trade Agreements
