What should you expect during the Brexit Transition?

The Brexit process has been lengthy and confusing. Find out what you really need to know to continue doing business considering the UK's decision to leave the EU. In addition to a market overview, topics to be addressed include travel and immigration, cross-border trade (U.S.- UK and UK – EU), and updates on potential changes to UK regulation. What are the key dates? How can you keep up to date with developments?

Join us to discuss opportunities in the UK!

The UK is the United States' seventh largest trading partner with $260 billion a year in goods and services flowing between our countries. As the UK departs the European Union, U.S. companies will find even more opportunities. This webinar will provide an overview and update on Brexit, looking specifically at the potential changes to the regulatory environment and existing UK/EU supply chain.
