

Intern with the U.S. Commercial Service Japan
Here's how to apply for a unique and rewarding internship.

Office Page Menu (Country)

CS Japan Internships

Students must be a Japanese citizen or permanent legal resident of Japan pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree. U.S. citizens should visit the U.S. Department of Commerce or State Department websites.

The Commercial Section of the U.S. Embassy in Japan is the principal federal government resource for international trade development and business expansion for U.S. companies. Interns have the opportunity to attend internal policy meetings, assist in planning events for U.S. companies, attend trade shows, assist with administrative tasks, and conduct market research. Positions are available in Tokyo and Osaka-Kobe.

U.S. Commercial Service Internship at the U.S. Embassy, Tokyo

The U.S. Commercial Service at the U.S. Embassy, Tokyo is no longer accepting applications for internships this year.

For questions on future internship opportunities, please contact the U.S. Commercial Service at Office.Tokyo@trade.gov.

U.S. Commercial Service Internship at the U.S. Consulate General, Osaka-Kobe

The U.S. Commercial Service at the U.S. Consulate General, Osaka-Kobe is currently not accepting applications for internships. If you are interested in our internship program, please check back this website periodically for an update.