

Preliminary July 2021 overseas visitor volume was 864,239, a year-over-year increase of 815.7% (see blue bar chart below). Note, July 2021 overseas visitor volume was up 9.9% over June 2021. In the prior year, July 2020 overseas visitor volume was 94,385 visitors, down 97.6% from July 2019. While July 2021 overseas visitor volume was the highest monthly volume compared to the prior 15 months and was just shy of the 869,768 reported for March 2020.

Base Year 2019: The yellow bar chart below reports that July 2021 was only 21.6% of the volume of July 2019 with overseas visitor volume increasing in each of the last five months since bottoming in February 2021. Central America reported 21% greater volume of visits to the United States in July 2021 than in pre-COVID July 2019 (132,057 vs. 108,761). South America leads all major world regions with a 37% share of overseas visits to the United States in July 2021.

